Re: Attitude of Israel toward Security
Council Meeting Called at the Request of Argentina

[illegible]

Tommy pointed out that the Council will not have a formal decision in this case. The Council will disappoint supporters of the United Nations since the council will be rendering a judgement on a case that it lacks jurisdiction. Tommy stated that the United Nations rule only on the general principle involved in a case such as it did in the U-2 incident and not accept a case.
